

‘Wear it Pink’ at tp24

Staff at tp24, the low energy lighting company, dressed in pink on Friday 30th October to raise money for the ‘Breast Cancer Campaign’. They also took to the streets, tempting shoppers and shop workers to part with their pennies for the price of a cake. They raised a total of £100 and would like to thank everyone who contributed. ‘Wear it Pink’ marks the end of Breast Cancer Awareness Month and all monies raised go towards research projects across the UK and Ireland.
